The Commissioners of the Board of Elections in the City of New York voted on August 6, 2013 to appoint former Commissioner Michael J. Ryan as its Executive Director. Mr. Ryan was engaged in the private practice of law. Executive Director Ryan has an extensive background in public service, including serving the Office of the Governor of New York as Deputy Director of Criminal Justice, as well as serving the Office of the Mayor in the City of New York. Mr. Ryan has also served in a number of roles within the City of New York Department of Probation.

Board President, Frederic Umane stated “Mr. Ryan’s abilities and extensive experience, well-equip him to lead the Board of Elections in the City of New York. We look forward to working with him to ensure a smooth and successful 2013 Election cycle.”

Council Member Gale A. Brewer, Chair, New York City Council Committee on Governmental Operations stated “I am very pleased that after several years without an Executive Director, the Board of Elections has appointed Michael Ryan. As we approach an important 2013 Election Cycle, I look forward to working with Mr. Ryan and the staff at the Board to ensure that the voters of New York City can exercise their democratic rights as quickly and painlessly as possible on Election Day.”

Executive Director Michael Ryan “I look forward to working with the staff, Commissioners, and members of the City and State Legislature with a view towards conducting an effective election process for every voter in the city of New York.”
